FOREWORD

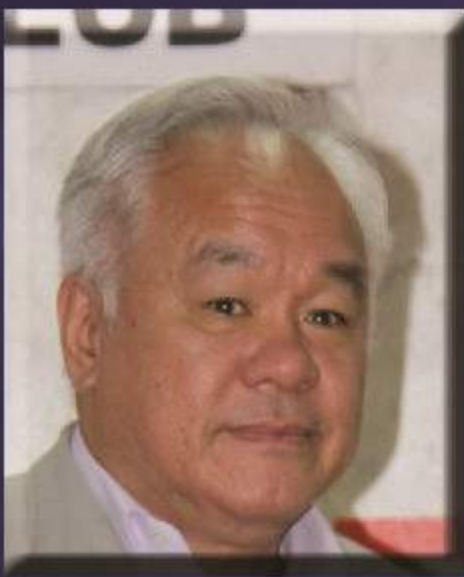

Message from Group Executive Chairman Yang Berbahagia Tan Sri William Cheng

The Lion Group (Steel Division) Sports & Recreation Club has once again achieved another year of success in its sports and recreational activities, which is commemorated in this 6th edition of the Year Book. I am happy to see that the members are actively participating in the activities organised by the Club throughout the year. These activities not only promote personal health and wellness but also improve physical, psychological and emotional well-being as well as reduce reliance on healthcare and medication. The Club has achieved its objective of promoting and fostering team spirit and a healthy lifestyle amongst its members.

I wish to commend the Committee Members for the good job done and believe that the new committee for 2016/2017 will carry on the good work by continuing to nurture strong leadership, encourage teamwork and enhance staff engagement.

Thank you.
